PPS Head Start Self-Assessment Report

Jason Roepel, Education Supervisor

Yetta McNeil, Manager of Health Services

Jean Borgerding, Health Coordinator
Carol Lowry, Family Services Manager
Susan Fodel, Inclusion Manager

Our Self-Assessment findings (see attached) were presented during the meeting.

- The classroom Hourly position was transitioned into a new position, Meal Time Aid, to give more parents the opportunity to work for Head Start. Praxis ParaPro information and support is being provided regularly for interested parents and community members. Volunteer Coordinator position created to orient parents and other community members on program expectations, prior to volunteering. Orientations will be provided as needed.
- Communication with Head Start parents/caregivers is expanding to include texting and emailing (utilizing ChildPlus systems), as well as an increased presence with
