

Join Now
From your pps.net
account

Padlet Q&A

6XXZhh^c\ Ydj g
8dchig Xi ^dc 8VgZZg
i] g]j \] J c ^dc
6eegZci ^XZh] ^e: = ^]
W\Z/= ^] 9Zb VcY
?dVh ^c i] Z 7j ^g ^c\
I g^YZh

Do you learn best by doing? Do you think of yourself as practical and hands-on? If you answered yes, learn why a union apprenticeship might be a good fit for you. Apprenticeship is an advanced

Join Now
From your pps

Join Now From your pps.net account	Padlet Q&A	English Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) at PCC	Learn about the English Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) at Portland Community College

			specifics about what a Carpe Diem and/or Carpe Mundi experience would look like.	Anne Koenning, Executive Director of Enrollment & Operations, Carpe Diem Education- Anne Koenning graduated from Lewis & Clark College with a degree in Sociology & Anthropology. She has been working with Carpe Diem since 2016 . Prior to joining the team, Anne worked in the admissions offices of Where There Be Dragons and the National Outdoor Leadership School. Anne loves having the opportunity to connect with students and their families as they prepare for an international semester experience.
Join Now From your pps.net account	Padlet Q&A	Navigating the College Application Process AND Transition to College for students with learning differences	Navigating the College Application Process AND Transition to College for Students with Learning Differences presents ideological considerations to support families in approaching college choices. In addition, presenters will offer concrete resources and pragmatic options specifically targeted to help students with learning differences find their best fit college.
				Md snsle In i. ShUti

